President's Report

President's Report.

Now that the short weeks with public holidays are behind us, it's back to normal life and we are starting to look forward to our next exciting function, the Neerlandia Annual Lunch.

We have decided to make this a re-occurring annual event to celebrate our Dutch Club Neerlandia.

Ticket sales are now well underway and shaping up pretty good.

The menu can be selected from 2 main dishes and 2 desserts.

Come and see Henk or Freda for ticket purchases.

We do have a few surprises lined up.

The Oranje Maas & Waal Borrel was well attended with the kids taking centre stage with their Blankets "Kleedjes" with Toys.

As the Committee is getting used to the rules and guidelines for the Sponsorship Program, we have this month been able to provide assistance to the following Sub-Clubs:

- Bus trip for the NSC to Mundaring.
- Setting up the Science and Computer Club (complete with a 3D printer). During the next few months, as Machiel sets up the Club properly, we would like to invite young and old to come along and have a look. (More details on page 11)
- Contribution to the Bingo Club to promote/encourage more Members to attend.

We have received many more exciting proposals that we will be looking at during our next Committee Meetings to ensure that every Sub-Club has something to look forward to.

On Sunday 21st May the RDC President Marlene has stepped down and will hand over the reigns.

I would like to thank Marlene for all the help she has provided to allow us to settle in at the RDC Clubhouse.

I am looking forward meeting and working closely with their new President.

Eric van Waaijenburg, President.

Stuff Dutch People Like & Being Dutch

"Stuff Dutch People Like" is a column written by a non-Dutch correspondent living in the Netherlands. This amusing column observes the Dutch in their everyday life. We hope that you enjoy reading "Stuff Dutch People Like" as much as we do.

Normality: "Doe normaal".

Dutch people like normality.

The Dutch expression "Doe normaal", roughly translates to "just be normal".

"Doe normaal" is the kind of statement your Grandma might have said to you in church, if you were blasting Hip Hop tunes from your iPhone during the Lord's Prayer.

But, it's not your Grandma saying it and you certainly aren't 12 anymore.

This time it's your Dutch partner saying it, your colleagues thinking it, the shopkeeper whispering it under their breath and your neighbours' tsk-tsking about it behind your back.

So, just what does "Being normal" actually means in the Netherlands?

Well, the easiest way to define acceptable normal Dutch behaviour is to list the biggest offenders of non-normality.

They are, in no particular order:

- ♦ Bragging.
- ♦ Showing off or acting pretentious.
- ♦ Discussing money. (or how much you have or make)
- ♦ Showing a little too much personality.
- ♦ Showing overt public displays of emotion.
- ♦ Not following the ever-important unwritten rules and regulations of the Lowlands.
- ♦ Acting or being perceived as too "weird", "different", "disobedient" or "foreign".

If you are out and about in the Lowlands and you hear the phrase "Niet normaal" uttered with contention under someone's breath or said in conjunction to something you have just said/done, you can safely assume you have crossed some invisible boundary of Socio-cultural norms. Congratulations are in order. "You have officially been deemed: Not normal."

Better re-trace your steps and see what exactly the fuss is all about – or – just get on with your business and accept it as a bizarre stamp-of-approval.

So, as you can see Dutch people like normality ... and it can be proven.

When asked to define the Dutch national character, 9 out of 10 Dutch people quoted the saying: "Doe maar gewoon, dan doe je al gek genoeg".

Translation: "Just act normal, that's already crazy enough"!

"Being Dutch" is a column written by Antoinetta. This Dutch lady currently lives with her English husband in Canada and explains to foreigners what it is to "Being Dutch". We hope that you enjoy her columns as much as we do.

Misconceptions about the Dutch.

You might have heard this joke before.

Heaven is where:

- The French are the chefs.
- The Italians are the lovers
- The British are the police.
- The Germans are the mechanics.
- And the Swiss make everything run on time.

Hell is where:

- The British are the chefs.
- The Swiss are the lovers.
- The French are the mechanics.
- The Italians make everything run on time.
- And the Germans are the police.

Every country has it's own stereotypes and misconceptions.

Some people think that Africa is a country or that the whole of Canada is covered in snow and that it is extremely cold.

When you think of the Netherlands, you think of windmills, tulips, cheese and wooden shoes.

Although you will not find a Windmill around every corner, there are still Windmills and certain places are especially known for them, like the "Kinderdijk en "Zaanse Schans".

And yes, we are cheese-heads and we do have a lot of tulips, but we don't walk on wooden shoes any more.

Going Dutch.

Most famously, Dutch people are known for being tight with money. The saying 'going Dutch' refers to splitting the bill right down the middle or according to what was consumed individually by each party. Whilst it's true that this is not uncommon practice in the Netherlands, it is taken in the spirit of egalitarianism, rather than a lack of generosity. It's easy to see how this would seem abrasive to other cultures. Money is considered by many a "delicate and even taboo subject" to broach socially. Dutch culture strongly favours social equality and directness and so it would be considered disrespectful to avoid 'being fair' for the sake of saving social face, even when it comes to money.

Stuff Dutch People Like & Being Dutch

Being up front with what you owe is simply being fair and reflects consideration of the other person's part in the event.

In fact, the Netherlands is actually a very generous country: "The percentage of their GDP going towards development aid is 0.82% above the UN target, only Luxembourg, Sweden and Norway are slightly higher."

In general, the Dutch are quite happy to pay for something, as long as it's good value for money and they are the happiest people on earth when they find a real bargain or managed to get an amazing deal.

Being Rude.

The Dutch do come across as rude and they have a habit of having their opinion on almost everything. They say things as they are, they don't mince words or beat around the bush. They say it straight up and direct, whether it's feedback from their manager, a comment on your new hairstyle or the simple (but direct, with no explanation) "no," when you ask someone for a favour.

Dutch "straight talking" takes a lot of getting used to, but it does have its advantages. At least you know where you stand! The Dutch value honesty and directness, it's important to them, and whilst many of us see our behaviour as rude and often take "Dutch directness" personally, it isn't intended that way. This is what most people call cultural differences.

The Dutch kill off the old and sick.

If you think you can get away with offing your wealthy Grandma in the Netherlands, you will find yourself under arrest quicker than you can say: 'mercy killing'. Nor are elderly persons wearing wrist bands saying: 'Do not euthanise me, please', as one-time US presidential candidate Rick Santorum had said.

The law on euthanasia, which dates from 2002, does not allow "euthanasia tourism" and doctors, who practice euthanasia, have to abide by a number of strict rules. In particular, the patient must be suffering unbearably and the doctor must be sure they are making an informed choice. According to the national statistics office, assisted suicide now accounts for 2.8% of all deaths in the Netherlands.

All Dutch smoke Weed.

It is a widespread misunderstanding that the Dutch smoke a lot of weed.

The use of weed in the UK and the USA is higher than in The Netherlands. In the Netherlands, 9.7% of young adults (aged 15-24) consume soft drugs once a month, comparable to the level in Italy (10.9%) and Germany (9.9%) and less than in the UK (15.8%) and Spain (16.4%), but much higher than in Sweden (3%), Finland or Greece.

Dutch rates of drug use are lower than the U.S. rates in every category.

Ditjes & Datjes and New Members

Feyenoord are the Dutch Champions.

About 140,000 Feyenoord supporters came to the Coolingsingel to honour their heroes.

Feyenoord has won the Dutch Eredivisie title, with arch-enemy Ajax second, one point behind them.

They managed to win their last game of the Competition with 3-0, with their evergreen Captain Dirk Kuyt scoring all three goals. Feyenoord supporters had to wait 19 long years for the team to win the title.

The City of Rotterdam witnessed a tremendous party, that lasted for a few days.

As an ex-Feyenoord player (Junior) and Supporter, I am proud of their achievement and congratulate the Club.

Editor.

Who Can Help out?

We have had an unusual request for finding a lost Aunt.

This request is unusual, as the Aunt has no name, just a general description that fits lots of our Members.

But we did receive a photo of the young man requesting this search, his name is Clinton.

The letter received is as follows:

Hi, my name is Clinton.

I am searching for my lost Dutch Aunt. She is somewhat tall, has blue eyes and has grey hair.

I saw her last at a Christmas Party.

Please get her to ring me on: 0478 139 859.

Thank you, Clinton.

In Memoriam.

It came to our notice that Len Gluver has passed away in early May 2017.

Len was our Dutch Accordionist, who since the beginning of our Club has entertained the Neerlandia Members at many functions and events, with his Dutch Waltzes, Polonaises and his popular Dutch Songs. Our sincere condolences to his family.

Len, Rest in Peace.

Hollandia Biljards Club.

The Snooker Club has settled in well since moving into the Snooker Room at the Rhein Donau Club.

The players are playing Snooker on two tables every Monday, except on Public Holidays, between the hours of 10am—2pm.

The larger tables at the RDC took some getting used to, but gradually an improvement can be noticed.

Presently the numbers are somewhat depleted with up to 4 players away on holidays.

Maas & Waal Borrel Night

On Friday, the 28th of March, we celebrated the 50th Birthday of our popular Dutch King, "Koning Willem Alexander" at the Rhine Donau Club.

A lot of the 140+ that were there, were dressed up in the colour Orange, which is of course a real Dutch tradition.

The Neerlandia Committee had also organised a: "Vrij Markt" (Free Market), but this, for obvious reasons, was only for the children to trade or sell their unwanted toys.

With food and drinks freely available, it did not take long for a happy atmosphere to develop and it was good to see people catch up with old friends or make new acquaintances.

A small hiccup was the Kitchen. The Chef had underestimated the number of people that turned up, he was overwhelmed with orders and had to stop taking them at 7.15pm, which is much too early.

It was suggested by someone that next year the Committee could liven up this event by choosing the best presented Kid's Blanket and a prize for he or she, who is the best dress-up in the orange or red, white and blue.

Don't miss our next Maas & Waal on the 30th of June.

Pieter.

The Honorary Dutch Consul Services explained

The following clarification was received from the Consul General's Office in Sydney regarding the role of the Honorary Dutch Consuls in Australia, which of course includes our Arnold Stroobach in Perth.
(Editor)

Dear Dutch Association,

With this letter I would like to inform you on the role of the Honorary Consuls in Australia as of 1 May 2017.

You are kindly asked to inform your Members and fellow Dutch accordingly.

As always the Honorary Consul will assist Dutch nationals who get into difficulty in Australia. This could mean issuing an emergency travel document when required, or helping out in another Consular emergency situation.

A Consular emergency situation may be a lost or stolen passport, a serious accident, hospitalisation, decease, a disappearance, or any other emergency.

In this case, you can reach any of the Dutch Honorary Consuls in Australia, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by phoning +61 (0)2 9 387 6644.

For all other Consular products and services (e.g. certain certificates, as per attachment) you should contact the Dutch Embassy in Canberra or the Consulate-General in Sydney via the website www.mfa.nl/can.

However, often a Justice of the Peace or Notary Public in your area will be able to provide the product or service you require.

Please find more detailed information in the attachment.

Thank you for your kind cooperation,

Kind regards,

Willem Cosijn,

Consul General of the Kingdom of the Netherlands in Sydney.

ATTACHMENT — HONORARY CONSUL SERVICES 2017

Lost or stolen passport:

If your passport is lost or stolen, you can apply for an emergency travel document, called a 'laissez-passer', by phoning +61 (0)2 9 387 6644.

Your application will be processed immediately. The Honorary Consul will contact you and provide you with a laissez-passer if you are found to be eligible for this document.

It takes 1 to 2 days to issue a laissez-passer because approval is required from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Please note: Not all countries accept laissez-passers. On journeys to the Netherlands from Australia, at this moment transit is only possible via Hong Kong, Singapore and Kuala Lumpur.

You can also apply for a new passport at the Consulate-General in Sydney via an emergency procedure. This takes 8 to 10 days and you must apply in person. Your new passport will be valid for 10 years.

Other consular emergencies:

You can also ask the Honorary Consul for support in the event of other Consular emergencies. Each case is individually assessed in consultation with the Consulate-General in Sydney. You can reach any of the Dutch Honorary Consuls in Australia 24 hours a day, seven days a week by phoning +61 (0)29 387 6644.

Other products and services:

The Honorary Dutch Consul Services explained

As of 1 May 2017 Honorary Consuls in Adelaide, Melbourne, Port Moresby, Perth and Hobart and as of today the Honorary Consul in Brisbane are only authorised to provide laissez-passers and provide assistance in Consular emergencies.

For all other products and services you should contact the Dutch embassy in Canberra or the Consulate-General in Sydney. However, often a Justice of the Peace or Notary Public in your area will be able to provide the product or service you require.

List of products and services and where to obtain them:

- Dutch passport - Consulate-General in Sydney.
- Visa - Consulate-general in Sydney.
- Dutch nationality certificate - Consulate-General in Sydney. (option to apply by post)
- Certificate of residence - Consulate-General in Sydney. (option to apply by post)
- Certificate of life - Consulate-General in Sydney, Justice of the Peace or Notary Public.
- Declaration of marital status - Consulate-general in Sydney. (option to apply by post)
- "Copy matches original stamp" - Embassy in Canberra, Consulate-General in Sydney, Justice of the Peace or Notary Public.
- Signature legalisation - Embassy in Canberra, Consulate-General in Sydney, Justice of the Peace or Notary Public.
- Option statement - Consulate-General in Sydney.
- Dutch identity card - Consulate-General in Sydney.

If you have any questions, please contact the helpdesk for Dutch passports and other Consular affairs using the contact form on the website: www.mfa.nl/can.

We will respond to your question as soon as possible.

Consular-General.

Now you have a real choice with in-home care

Many people love the security and familiarity of living in their own home. Now the Federal Government allows you to choose the in-home care support service so you can continue to live an independent and active life.

As an accredited provider, we have nearly 30 years experience in providing an extensive range of in-home services for the elderly. We'll work with you – and your family – to see which of our services will be most beneficial to your circumstances.

You might need help with activities such as:

- shopping
- transport
- medical appointments
- cleaning
- personal care
- assistance with meal preparation
- or just having a chat with someone over a cuppa

Our clients come from many different ethnic backgrounds and a diverse variety of lifestyles – we provide culturally specific services and treat them all with the same degree of respect and dignity.

The first step to getting CURA's individual in-home care is to call and have a chat with a member of our Care Team.

If you are not eligible for Government funding, we can still assist you in planning for private services, no matter what your age.

Formally Known as Dutch Aged Care. (DACWA)

What can I do now to prepare for getting older?

Healthy and active ageing.

Being healthy, physically active and socially engaged throughout your life has many benefits, especially as you grow older.

Some simple tips to help you to achieve healthy and active ageing include:

- Maintain a balanced diet. This is important for a healthy body and healthy brain.
- Do regular physical activity. This is essential for your body and mind. Regular physical activity builds muscle and helps to control weight, blood pressure, cholesterol, diabetes, pain, as well as bone and joint problems such as osteoporosis and arthritis. It can also reduce your risk of heart disease, stroke, some cancers, and help prevent falls and injury.
- Actively participate socially and engage with others. This contributes to your overall health and wellbeing by strengthening your sense of belonging and creating social relationships.

How do I maintain a balanced diet?

To maintain a balanced diet, you should try to eat a variety of foods from different groups. This means trying to eat:

- Fruit and vegetables – two serves of fruit and five serves of vegetables every day.
- Foods such as bread, cereal, rice, potatoes, pasta and other starchy foods, preferably wholegrain or wholemeal.
- Milk and dairy foods – use low fat milk and yoghurt and hard cheeses.
- Meat, fish, eggs, beans such as broadbeans, soybeans and lentils and other non-dairy sources of protein.
- Fish – at least two portions a week, including one portion of oily fish such as trout, salmon and sardines.
- Smaller amounts of food and drink that are high in fat or sugar.
- It is also essential to drink lots of water and other fluids in order to keep the body hydrated.

What types of physical activity should I do?

It is important to remain active as you age. For active ageing you should try to do at least 30 minutes of moderate physical activity on most, preferably all, days to help keep your heart, lungs, muscles and bones working well. It's a good idea to do a range of activities that help with fitness, strength, flexibility and balance.

What types of social activities should I do?

Joining a local group or taking part in regular social activities with family, friends and neighbours is a good way to keep involved and connected with the community.

CVS Volunteer Training Workshop 2017.

On Monday, 13th of March we had our first CVS Volunteer Training for the year

We were fortunate to have Alyce Martin from Lynn and Brown Lawyers educating us about Enduring Power of Attorney, Guardianship, Wills and Advanced Health Directive. Lots of questions were asked and answered and we learned a lot.

Thank you Alyce !

Seeking CURA-In-Home Care Board Members.

Have you ever considered becoming a Member of a Board of Management? Are you passionate about supporting the elderly to live in their own home for as long as possible?

CURA In-Home Care is encouraging applications from the public and from Members to join our Board. The Board plays an important role, being responsible for governing, overseeing the affairs of and making strategic decisions for the organization and on behalf of its Members.

If you feel you have time, knowledge and expertise to offer our organization, together with a strong desire to help improve the quality of lives of elderly persons living in Perth, then please contact our Chairperson Henri Koldenhoven on 0408 740 680 for more details.

CURA is now recruiting Volunteers for our Community Visitor Scheme.

Our volunteers visit elderly people either in their own homes or in residential aged care. They bring friendship and happiness to the people they visit and they receive the same in return.

When you are a CVS Volunteer, you receive an orientation, access to an online training program, three in-house training sessions per year and reimbursement for travel expenses.

If you are looking for a meaningful opportunity to volunteer an hour every fortnight, please phone us on 9382 1983 or email us at cvcs@cura-inhomecare.org.au.

We would love to hear from you.

Saving the Vincent van Gogh Church

Fransen fietsen naar Zundert om 'Van Gogh-kerk' te redden.

Het schilderij van Vincent van Gogh.

Precies 396 kilometer. Zo ver is het fietsen van het ene naar het andere 'Van Gogh-dorp'. De afgelopen vijf dagen fietste een groepje Fransen vanuit Auvers-sur-Oise naar Zundert, de geboorteplaats van schilder Vincent van Gogh. De Fransen willen op die manier geld inzamelen voor de restauratie van de kerk in de Franse plaats.

De kerk werd wereldberoemd door een schilderij van Vincent van Gogh. Hij schilderde De kerk van Auvers rond 1890. De kerk heeft nu 600.000 euro nodig voor een opknapbeurt; het dak en het houtwerk moet gerestaureerd worden.

Ondernemers uit het Franse dorp hebben al 200.000 euro ingezameld. Om meer geld op te halen besloten negen inwoners van Auvers-sur-Oise naar Zundert te fietsen. Om vijf uur vanmiddag kwam het groepje aan bij het gemeentehuis waar ze in het Frans werden ontvangen door burgemeester Leny Poppe-de Looff.

De burgemeester bewondert de Franse fietsers. "Ik vond dat een welkomstwoord in het Frans wel het minste was wat ik kon doen", zegt ze tegen Omroep Brabant. "We voelen ons vereerd dat we hier in Zundert mogen arriveren voor een heel interessant doel", zegt Veronique Le Clainche, een van de fietsers. Ze is wel een beetje moe. "We hebben tachtig kilometer per dag gefietst."

De gemeente heeft een rekeningnummer geopend waar mensen geld kunnen doneren. Het totaalbedrag wordt later overgemaakt naar de stad Auvers-sur-Oise, inclusief een compleet overzicht van alle donateurs.

Klaverjassen: Sunday Drive & Competition Results

Sunday Klaverjas Drive Results.

On Sunday the 7th of May, we held our regular monthly Card drive once again. There were 28 members present, one of which was a non-playing Member. This meant 6 playing tables and 3 onlookers, as we cannot have "Invallers" during these Sunday Drives. However, this problem was quickly solved. Peter & Joke Leeftang decided to play 2 games each on the one table and Murray and Gerry volunteered not to play at all and together with Thea Gorter did all the "paperwork and washing up" that is usually required. We also welcomed 3 newcomers, who have not played on Sundays before: Bill Spanbroek, Keith Vermeulen and Colin Heijer.

Although Keith Vermeulen does play on Wednesdays and Thursday evenings. All three are very welcome none-the-less. As usual competition was fierce and Piet Segers (who else) was a runaway winner with Frieda Hovingh second and Nel Bakker third.

The winners were:

1st Prize:	Piet Segers	7013 points.
2nd Prize:	Freda Hovingh	6865 points.
3rd Prize:	Nel Bakker	6753 points.

Lunch was very good, everyone was satisfied and Chef Trevor was informed about this as well, so things are improving and everyone had a good time and left happy.

Hope to see you all at the next Sunday Drive on Sunday the 4th of June.

Prize winners l.t.r: 3rd prize, Nel Bakker; 1st prize, Piet Segers; 2nd prize, Freda Hovingh.

Thursday Night Card Club Neerlandia.

On the first evening of our 2017 competition, we discovered to our regret, that we had lost 2 Bolivia players, who were no longer able to attend on Thursday nights.

Much to our relief, two of our existing Bolivia players brought along two new players, Toon and Hanny Kamps.

Then, later on in the competition, we gained a new Klaverjas player, Keith Vermeulen. Naturally these three new members were welcomed with open arms and we wish them many years of enjoyment within our ranks.

The first competition for the year concluded on the 11th of May. Piet Segers, our Score master, announced the winners of the competition and handed out the prizes.

The winners were as follows:

Klaverjas players:

1st Prize:	Joost Den Haan	71270 points.
2nd Prize:	Piet Leeftang	71143 points.
Marsen Prize:	Joke Leeftang	29 Marsen.

(Joost Den Haan had 32 Marsen, but could not claim a second prize).

Average Prize:	Henk Smit	65315 points.
-----------------------	------------------	----------------------

Bolivia players: (Prizes allocated in turn)

Weekly players: Margaret Bosland.

Fortnightly players: Hanny Kamps.

We congratulate all prize winners and better luck next competition for all other players.

Murray.

HE WROTE TO THE HOTEL ASKING IF HIS DOG COULD STAY WITH HIM IN HIS ROOM. THE HOTEL'S REPLY IS HYSTERICAL.

A man wrote a letter to a small hotel in a town he planned to visit on his holiday. He wrote: I would very much like to bring my dog with me. He is well-groomed and very well behaved.

Would you be willing to permit me to keep him in my room with me at night?"

An immediate reply came from the hotel owner, who wrote:

SIR: "I've been operating this hotel for many years. In all that time, I've never had a dog steal towels, bedclothes, silverware or pictures off the walls.

I've never had to evict a dog in the middle of the night for being drunk and disorderly. And I've never had a dog run out on a hotel bill. Yes, indeed, your dog is welcome at my hotel.

And, if your dog will vouch for you, you're welcome to stay here, too."

Social activities at the Rhein Donau Club

Some useful information about the Rhein-Donau Club.

The Rhein-Donau Club was established 1958 and has been operational in Perth since 1959 at its present premises in Myaree. The Club has been established with its prime objective to provide a facility for people from Germany, Austria, Switzerland, the Netherlands and other Europeans and residents from Western Australia, who enjoy the culture, music, culinary delights and customs of countries embraced by the two major rivers of Europe; namely Rhine and Danube.

The Rhein-Donau Club is a non-profit, non-denominational and non-political organisation and is operated by volunteers. All money raised are channelled to the maintenance and improvements of the Club facilities, promotion of educational and cultural activities and assist the care of aging Club Members.

Welcome to the Rhein-Donau Club!

The Obituary.

Following the death of his wife a thrifty Yorkshire farmer visited the offices of the Yorkshire Post.

After 50 years of happily married life he felt that an obituary would be in order.

When the receptionist on the desk informed the farmer of the cost, he exclaimed in true Yorkshire fashion.

"How Much, that much!"

Then he reluctantly produced his wallet saying: "I want it summat simple, my Gladys was a good-hearted and hard-working Yorkshire lass, but she wunt 'ave wanted owt swanky."

"Perhaps a small poem," suggested the woman at the desk.

"Nay," said the farmer: "She wunt 'ave wanted anything la-di-da. Just put in, 'Gladys Braithwaite's died.'"

"You need to say when," he was then told by the receptionist.

"Do I? Well, put in died 17th December 2016. That'll do."

"It is usual for the bereaved to add some meaningful phrase about the dearly departed."

The man considered this proposal for a moment. "Well, put in Sadly Missed. That'll do."

"You can have another four words," explained the receptionist.

"No, no!" he cried, "she wouldn't 'ave wanted me to splash out."

"But the extra four words are included in the price," the woman told him.

"Are they? You mean I've paid for 'em."

"Yes, indeed."

"Well, if I've paid for 'em," exclaimed the man, "Then I'm 'avin' 'em."

The obituary appeared in the Yorkshire Post the next morning.

Gladys Braithwaite died 17th December 2016. Sadly missed. Also Tractor for sale.

Handyman Husband.

Wife texts her handy husband on a freezing cold winter's morning: "Windows frozen ~ won't open".

Husband texts back: "Gently pour some lukewarm water over the edges and then tap edges sharply with hammer."

Wife texts back 5 minutes later:

"Laptop really buggered now!!"

The Doctor's Advice.

Morris, an 82 year-old man, went to the doctor to get a physical.

A few days later, the doctor saw Morris walking down the street with a gorgeous young woman on his arm.

A couple of days later, the doctor spoke to Morris and said: "You're really doing great, but did you understand what I told you last week?" Morris replied: "Just doing what you said, Doc. Get a hot Mamma and be cheerful."

The doctor said: "I didn't quite say that." I said: "You've got a heart murmur; be careful."

The Ice Cream Parlour.

A little old man shuffled slowly into an ice cream parlour and pulled himself slowly, painfully, up onto a stool. After catching his breath, he ordered a banana split.

The waitress asked kindly: "Crushed nuts?"

"No" he replied. "Arthritis."

The Sermon.

A minister was completing a temperance sermon.

With great emphasis he said:

"If I had all the beer in the world, I'd take it and pour it into the river."

With even greater emphasis he said: "And if I had all the wine in the world, I'd take it and pour it into the river."

And then finally, shaking his fist in the air, he said: "And if I had all the whiskey in the world, I'd take it and pour it into the river as well."

Sermon complete, he sat down...

The Choir leader stood up very cautiously and announced with a smile, nearly laughing: "For our closing song, let us sing Hymn #365: Shall We Gather at the River."

If this brightened up your day.

Don't let it stop here.

Keep spreading the Cheer.

See you at the river!

But bring your own glass!

The fortified City of Groenlo

Flag and Coat of Arms of Groenlo.

Groenlo is a City in the Municipality of Oost Gelre, situated in the eastern part of the Netherlands on the German border.

This region in the province of Gelderland is called the "Achterhoek" (back corner).

Groenlo was a Municipality until 1 January 2005, when it merged with Lichtenvoorde.

The name Groenlo refers to a green wood that lay in the neighbourhood (groen means "green", lo means "forest").

As of 1 January 2013, Groenlo counted a population of 10,067.

History:

Groenlo originates from the beginning of the 7th century.

On 2 December 1277, it received City rights from landgrave Reinoud I of Zutphen.

In 1406, Groenlo became part of the Bishopric of Münster.

The City was a very important trade center along the German–Dutch trade route, which resulted in a rich variety of Guilds.

Sand castle depicting the City's defences in the 16th Century.

It also became an important stronghold during the 16th and 17th century. The City was repeatedly besieged during the Eighty Years' War.

Groenlo still has a defensively shaped Gracht (canal) and (the remains of) bulwarks stemming from this era.

In 1597 the city was conquered by Maurice of Nassau. In 1606 it was reconquered by Spanish troops led by Spinola.

In 1627 Groenlo was besieged once again and conquered by Frederik Hendrik, which became one of Groenlo's most important historical events.

This event still effects everyday lives in the form of street names and the names of establishments in the City.

Two restaurants in its historical center are appropriately named Frederik Hendrik and "Het Beleg van Grol" (The Siege of Grol). The battles of the Eighty Year's War are re-enacted regularly, drawing sizable crowds.

Tourism:

Tourism is of major importance to Groenlo, with over 3500 tourists spending the night at peak times. As part of a wider Tourists attraction plan, some of Groenlo's old bulwarks have been under restoration since 2007, causing some controversy making local and even national television. The reason being that a large number of large trees had to be cut down to complete the plan.

Tourists can enjoy a 2-hour trip in the Fortified City's Tourist Train, showing off all the historic places of the City and its serene surrounding landscape.

Groenlo is also well known for its Beer Brewery "Grolsch," which was in business since 1615, but it closed its doors in 2004, when it moved to Boekelo.

Catholic Stronghold:

Groenlo has been under Spanish control for a considerable time during its violent history, which has left its marks. One of those is that the majority of the local population is still Catholic, which is an exception in this mainly Protestant Region.

Ultra Modern Cattle Market with fake cows to calm down the live cattle.

This has resulted in several Catholic traditions being celebrated locally, such as Carnival and "Kermis", as well as there being a relatively large number of licensed establishments and restaurants.

Economy:

In the past it was the "Grolsch Brewery" and a thriving Cattle Market, that were the main contributors to its economy. But presently, Tourism is by far the largest contributor.

A new "green" Cattle Market has been built in the center of the City.

CODEBREAKER PUZZLE

A Codebreaker is a crossword puzzle with no clues! Every letter of the alphabet has been replaced by a number.

For this puzzle only the first three letters are revealed. Start with entering these letters throughout the puzzle first and then start guessing your first word or letter. Use a pencil to start, then if it does not work out, you can erase and start again. Some letters, e.g. the letter E occurs much more often than others e.g. the letters X or Z.

The last Codebreaker was testing, but once you found the words: Indigo, Engaging and Envisage, you were well on the way to solve it. The letter code solution for last month's Codebreaker was as follows:
A=17; B=2; C=25; D=8; E=14; F=18; G=6; H=9; I=20; J=16; K=4; L=22; M=26 N=15; O=12; P=10; Q=3; R=13; S=11; T=21; U=19; V=7; W=5; X=24; Y=23; Z=1.

The views in this magazine are those expressed by the writers and not necessarily those by the Management Committee of The Dutch Society Neerlandia (WA) Inc or the editor.

Deadlines: Contributions to the Neerlandia magazine should be in the Editor's hands no later than the 15th of each month and should bear the author's name and address. Anonymous letters will not be published and will be thrashed instead.

Advertisers wanting to insert or change or re-edit their advertisements are also subject to these conditions.

Anything received beyond the 15th of the month may not be considered for inclusion until the next edition. Due to printing methodology no proof reader's copy can be provided and no responsibility is taken for occasional typographical errors, omissions and minor inaccuracies.
